DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-13, 18-20, 24, 28, 35, 38 and 41-51 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Handique et al. (6,130,098). This rejection was maintained in the previous Office Action (mailed 9/29/08). It remains in effect. Please see Response to Arguments below.

Inventorship

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
5. Claims 14-17, 21-23, 25-34, 36, 37, 39, 40, 52 and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Handique et al. (6,130,098). This rejection was maintained in the previous Office Action (mailed 9/29/08). It remains in effect. Please see Response to Arguments below.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 12/29/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant has amended claim 1 to change the transitional phrase "comprising" to "consisting essentially of" and then argued that this is sufficient to distinguish the instant device over the prior art Handique. Applicant has argued that claim 1 now requires that the manipulator excludes the microchannels.

7. The Examiner respectfully disagrees. The phrase is “consisting essentially of” is discussed in section 2111.03 of the MPEP. The phrase may be interpreted to include additional elements beyond those claimed “that do not materially affect the basic and novel characteristic(s)” of the claimed invention. As noted in the previous Office Action, the Examiner considers the lower layer – alone - of the Handique device as meeting the limitations of claim 1. See Paragraph 6 of the Office Action mailed 9/29/08. Applicant has argued that a lack of microchannels is a novel characteristic of the device, but the Examiner notes that the embodiment shown in Figure 30 appears to show a channel and the description of the embodiment of Figures 30 and 31 provided by Applicant states that the “surface 1901 is depicted as smooth and flat, although any surface topography can be used” in Paragraph [0063]. The Examiner submits that this is a teaching away from the lack of microchannels being a novel or critical characteristic of the device. In addition, the Examiner notes that Applicant has provided embodiments of the device which include additional elements beyond those recited in claim 1 such as a MEMS sensor (See Paragraph [0049], claims). Therefore, the Examiner submits that the transitional phrase “consisting essentially of” as used in the instant claims would allow for additional elements (the upper layer) beyond the flat, channel-less, lower layer of Handique having the thermal elements.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
